BOURNEMOUTH ANNOUNCES CLEAN FOR THE QUEEN EVENTS.

Bournemouth Borough Council have made a borough-wide call to ask residents to join together for the Clean For The Queen events. The appeal for everyone to work together follows the Launch of the National Clean For The Queen initiative ahead of the 90th Birthday in April.

Councillor Bobbie Dove said, "Community spirit in Bournemouth is fantastic and residents have a really strong sense of pride in their town. We are asking every person, young and old, to come along with your neighbours and help keep Bournemouth spic and span and help celebrate Her Majesty's special birthday".

Clean For The Queen was set up by Adrian Evans who was the pageant master for the Queen's Diamond Jubilee in 2012. The Countdown to the big clean weekend on 4th-6th March is expected to attract over 1 million people nationally in over 500,000 different events.

About 2.25 million pieces of litter are dropped on the streets of the UK every day. This costs tax payers almost £1 billion each year to clean up litter from the streets of England.

The two events are taking place on Saturday 5th March, 9.30 at the Hungry Hiker, Hengistbury Head and the second starting at 1.30 from AFC Bournemouth, Kings Park. Residents can register at Bournemouth.gov.uk/cleanforthequeen
